Miscellaneous Information On June 18, 2021 Boyd-Danner parked his car in the VIP parking lot traffic lane and entered a casino located in King of Prussia, PA when he left the vehicle with the windows up, in 84 degree weather, not running with a one to two year old child in the back and went in to game at the Sportsbook area and then the gaming area. PSP arrived and Security used a rescue hammer to break the front drivers side window. The child was taken out of the vehicle by PSP and they smelled marijuana coming from the car. Meanwhile, Boyd-Danner ran to his vehicle after being approached by security and and attempted to drive away while the driver's side door and both back seat doors were open. After doing this, his vehicle lodged onto large rocks that were in the grass area in front of the vehicle. Police removed and detained him. While arresting him, the police found 21 bundles of prepackaged fentanyl and a firearm. He pled guilty to 3 felonys and was sentenced to 3 to 8 years of confinement, along with being permanently banned from the casino.
